ABSTRACT

(Text below is just to explain, might do not reflect the sections mentioned)

Background & Objectives: The abstract must be written as a single, continuous paragraph without subheadings, indentation, tables, figures, bullets, or references. It should provide a concise and comprehensive summary of the study, clearly outlining the research problem, objectives, methodology, key results, and principal conclusions. The abstract should be single-spaced, typed in 11-point Times New Roman font.

Methods: The opening portion of the abstract should briefly state the problem or issue addressed and provide the rationale for conducting the study. This should be followed by a clear statement of the objectives and a concise description of the research design and methods employed. Citations and references must not be included in the abstract.

Results: Subsequently, the abstract should present the main findings or outcomes of the study. It should conclude with a brief statement highlighting the implications, significance, and contribution of the work to the relevant field or discipline. The abstract will form the primary basis for peer review and acceptance for paper presentation at the conference. Authors will be notified of acceptance via email. The abstract must adhere strictly to the word limit of 250–300 words

Conclusion: The abstract should be submitted in the format of MS Word (.doc or .docx) document. Keywords should be given leaving one-line space below this text.

Keywords: single, paragraph, summarizes, words indentation (maximum 6 words)

 Please note that, this format is provided for informative abstract (complete abstract). Descriptive and critical abstracts are also welcomed and authors are encouraged to follow specific standards
